The money handled by the postal system and its financial operations are fabulous to contemplate and startling in their magnitude. During the fiscal year ended June 30, 1904, the revenue of the postal service was approximately $143,000,000; the expenditures about $152,000,000. Here is a grand total going and coming of about $300,000,000. In addition to this the money order system issued orders to the people for the sum of $378,000,000, and paid orders of an equal amount. The registry system transported for the Postoffice and Treasury Departments alone the recorded amount of $1,802,000,000, besides unknown and unrecorded millions sent under cover and seal by the bankers and general public. From the records, therefore, we have the grand total of money handled of just about $3,000,000,000.

ROOSEVELT is in his usual luck. He has just drawn $583.33 for extra pay as a soldier of the Spanish war, which was granted in pursuance of the act of Congress of January, 1899, granting two months' extra pay to all soldiers of the United States who served in a foreign country during the war with Spain. The president never made an application for the payment of the claim.

THERE are 13 candidates for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Ohio, an honor which would amount to nothing even if it was not handicapped by the unlucky number. A Democratic candidate stands no more chance in Ohio than a prohibition candidate in Kentucky.

COUNTRY editors are coming to the front. The present Governors of Kansas, Minnesota and Oklahoma are country editors. The present State Auditor of Kansas is a country editor, likewise the Congressman-at-Large.

A METHODIST church at Spokane is to have a bowling alley in the basement. The late John Jasper, of Richmond, Va., seems to have been right when he contended that "the world do move."

EARL OF WEMYSS says prohibitionists live 57 years, drunkards 59 years and moderate drinkers 71 year. The Earl must be the advance agent of a rum saloon, as the prohibitionists call it.

LOUISVILLE is at a dead standstill. There were 73 births against 73 deaths there last week.

MAYOR ROBERT KINNAID.

Who died at Lancaster yesterday morning. A fine gentleman, a prominent citizen and one who will be sadly missed in the community in which he lived.

LANCASTER.

The famous Saxton & Trost Military Band of Lexington, has been engaged to play for the Lancaster fair. This band will also furnish the music at the big hop to be given during the fair. A large force of men have been at work three weeks grading the track, laying water pipes and cleaning up the fair grounds. The fair catalogues will be out in a few days.

H. A. B. Marksbury, while attending the reunion in Louisville, was very badly hurt. While descending the steps at the "Fall of Port Arthur," he caught his foot and fell, breaking two ribs. He was taken to the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. H. Rice, where he received medical attention. Mr. Marksbury was sufficiently recovered to be brought home Monday afternoon.

The sad death of Mr. Robert Kinnaid of tuberculosis occurred Monday morning at 3 o'clock. Mr. Kinnaid was about 59 years of age and has been in declining health for a number of years, and his death was not unexpected. He was one of Lancaster's best citizens and has filled many places of prominence, having been mayor for 12 years. He was an Odd Fellow, a Knight of Pythias and a Mason, besides belonging to other fraternal orders. Mr. Kinnaid is survived by a widow, two daughters, Misses Grace and Margaret, and a son, Herbert. Funeral services will very probably be conducted by the Masonic Lodge; however, arrangements have not been completed as yet.

Miss Jesse Doty is the guest of Miss Hood at Junction City. Misses Pauline and Margaret Hocker, of Stanford, are with their aunt, Mrs. Mattie Duncan.

Cured Of Bright's Disease.

George A. Sherman, Lisbon Red Mills, Lawrence county, N. Y., writes: "I had kidney disease for many years and had been treated by physicians 12 years; had taken a well-known kidney medicine and other remedies that were recommended but got no relief until I began using Foley's Kidney Cure. The first half bottle relieved me and four bottles cured me of this terrible disease. Before I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure I had to make water about every 15 minutes, day and night, and passed a brick-dust substance, and sometimes a slimy substance. I believe I would have died if I had not taken Foley's Kidney Cure." G. L. Penny.

The closing spectacular feature of the 15th annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans, was, perhaps, the greatest parade since veterans have been holding reunions. Nearly all of Louisville was out to see it and to cheer the glorious remnants of the South's magnificent army. Gen. Lee, Commander of the U. C. V., through Adj. Gen. Mickle, issued a formal order thanking the people of Louisville for the splendid hospitality extended them.

Madeline Ashley, 19 years old, was instantly killed, and Madeline Adams, two years old, probably fatally injured by a sky rocket during the fire works exhibition at Cayuga, Ind.

A tank containing 36,600 barrels of naphtha was struck by lightning and destroyed at Lima, O., entailing a loss of $200,000.

This story is illustrative of the absolute silence and loneliness of the typical Australian bush camp:

Two men were camping together but rarely exchanged a word.

One morning one of the men remarked at breakfast: "Heard a cow bellow in the swamp just now."

Nothing further was said and they went about their business for the rest of the day. Twenty-four hours later, once more at breakfast, the second man said:

"How d'you know it wasn't a bull?"

Again no comment. Again a pause of 24 hours. Next morning the first man began to pack up his "billy" and "swag."

"You going?" inquired the other.

"Yes."

"Why?"

"Because," said his friend, "there's too much argument in this camp."

A baggage man on the Hannibal division of the Burlington was hauling a corpse into his car, and imagine his feeling when he heard a strange, unnatural voice coming from the long box, saying: "Let me out of here." When he recovered from his first fright he ran for his conductor, who arrived just in time to hear the uncanny sound. The whole train crew was called and a grave engineer investigated. Sitting near the coffin was a small square box. Listening, the engineer heard a scratching, and again the voice, "Let me out of here." The smaller box was opened and a little green parrot popped out.—Kansas City Journal.

A stringent injunction has been issued against the malignant activity of dyspepsia amongst people by Dr. Caldwell's (Laxative) Syrup Pepsin. Do not fail to invoke the powerful aid of this great enemy of all stomach and bowel disorders at the least sign of trouble in any of your digestive organs. A crowd of men at Mayfield bought a keg of beer Monday and proceeded at once to empty it by the cup process; says the Chilton Democrat. After getting all out that would come out through the faucet they were still not satisfied, so they squeezed the keg good and hard, and to their horror and surprise a partially decomposed snake was poured out. The incident created quite an excitement in beer circles at Mayfield.

Red Leaf, 4-year-old record 222 in 9th heat over one-half mile track. Size of 5 with records better than 220. Champion show horse of Kentucky and leading sire of high-class horses and teams. $25 to insure a living colt, and a good one at that, or $12.50 the season.

I claim it is to the best interest of the owners of mares of Mercer and adjoining counties to breed to Red Leaf—1st, Because he is not for sale; I expect to keep him and breed and handle his stock as long as I live. 2nd, Because his colts have a reputation at high prices, no matter to whom they belong. 3rd, Because his colts have a reputation and have sold for higher prices developed than those of any stallion in Mercer or adjoining counties. 4th, Because he has a better record as a race horse, having won 10 out of 13 races, and a better record as a show horse, having won 8 out of 13 shows, than any stallion in Mercer or adjoining counties. 5th, Because Red Leaf is the only horse sired by a horse with a record of 2:18 (C. F. Clay), who has sired 8 colts with records better than 2:18, and with a dam (Lady Hart) that every colt would have been a standard record and was a winner, and whose grand dam (Soprano) was the greatest brood mare in the world, having 11 in the list, and whose dam sold for $1,000, whose dam's sire (Red Wilkes) sold for $500 for a half interest, and who himself (Red Leaf) sold at three years old for $1,000 and at 4 years old for $1,750, and that has himself sired 12 colts to sell for over $500—some as high as $2,000—and teams from $1,000 to $2,000, in Mercer or adjoining counties. 6th, But three of Red Leaf's colts were ever trained for speed and they all took records. 7th, But one of Red Leaf's colts was ever raced, and he started in 11 or 12 races, winning first in one and second in all the others, as shown by the Year book, and showed miles in 2:15, and would have been a sensational horse had he lived. 8th, Red Leaf has sired more high-class, high-priced teams than any stallion in Kentucky in the past two years. 9th, I can show several offers of over $500 for a pair I now have. None of those sold five years old, and most of them under three years old.

Now I say if you want a trotter, Red Leaf is bred to get them, as his sire is one of the greatest sires of extreme speed, and his dam a great producer, and she by one of the world's greatest sires of speed (Red Wilkes), and his sire's dam the greatest brood mare in the world. If you want a show horse, he has proven he can get them of the highest quality, a three-year-old mare by him showing through the circuit in regular and sweepstakes and winning 24 out of 26 shows—something equalled only by the world's famous Gypsy Queen. If you want a business horse, he can get them that will sell for the highest dollars, and his fillets are sure to be great brood mares. If these are not facts, why not?

I also have a good Black Jack to stand at $5 to insure a living colt.

R. E. GODDARD.

Experience Teaches
Experience, 'tis said, keeps a dear school—the tuition comes high, but the lessons learned therein are never forgotten. The wise, however, are willing to profit by the experience of others. When the painter-man tells you that

Mastic Mixed Paint

"The Kind That Lasts"

is mixed better than he can mix paints by hand, that they are pure, sure and durable, that they give the best possible results in beauty and finish, and will not crack, peel or chalk off—that's the voice of experience—the lesson taught is, "buy Mastic Mixed Paint—save money."
